

Alan McGee from Waukee, IA visited the Dakota Sunset Museum in search of information about his great grandfather, Samuel McGee. Samuel came to Potter County in 1893, living in Lincoln Township for twelve years. His brother, Isaac lived 3 miles south. Alan was surprised and happy to not only find obituaries of his family members and where they lived, but also, historical information about Samuel's application for the GAR Grand Army of the Republic.

