

On their way to Spearfish, Julie Price Shrug, Chaska MN brought her granddaughter, Nichelle Shrug to the Dakota Sunset Museum to show her the Medicine Rock that she had told her so much about. Julie grew up in Gettysburg (daughter of Mary Lou Crandall Price) and granddaughter of Arnold “Jarb” (1901- 1985) and Lillian (Hansen) Crandall (1908 – 1989). Jarb was employed by the Potter County Highway Department for 45 years. Lillian taught in rural schools in Potter County and was a bookkeeper at the J.E. Moore Hardware for 18 years.
