

Tom Butch is pictured next to his U.S. Air Force uniforms he wore while serving with the 903rd Radar operations base north of Gettysburg. The 91 year old veteran stopped by the Dakota Sunset Museum with his daughter and family on their way home from Pierre where he was inducted into the SD Technology Education Association Hall of Fame. He was one of the first 5 base men who arrived in Oct. 1955.